Chandler F.U.M.C.

by Linda G. Keeling

"You should not bow down to any images nor worship them in any way, for I am the Lord your God. I am a jealous God, and I will bring the curse of a father's sins upon even the third and fourth, generation of the children of those who hate me; but I will show kindness to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments." (Deuteronomy 5:9, 10)

Many may read the Bible and feel that the "sins of the father" is no longer relevant. Jesus died for our sins, so all is forgiven. Certainly that is true, if one believes in the Word and in Christ. But this verse addresses those who do not believe. We all know those who are critical of any type of religion and ridicule any belief in an eternal life. For those people this verse may still hold true. For who knows what influence they have on their children, and grandchildren, all the way to the third and fourth generations.

That is why we as Christians support the programs, and activities designed to attract children into the church. Programs such as Terrific Tuesdays, Vacation Bible School, Wednesday Kids, youth choirs and bells, offer alternatives to what the child may not be receiving in any other environment. We should encourage parents to let their children participate in church activities, to bring children to worship services, to encourage Bible study groups for all ages. As stated in Deuteronomy 6:2 "The purpose of these laws is to cause you, your sons, and your grandsons to reverence the Lord your God by obeying all of his instructions as long as you live; if you do you will have long, prosperous years ahead of you."

We have so many volunteers in our church that we, as a congregation owe our gratitude. Without all these dedicated people, the children and youth programs offered by our church would not be possible. It is impossible to name everyone involved, but we all know who they are. Last Sunday we did not need to see the T-shirts of the volunteers that worked with the Vacation Bible School, you needed only to look at those who appeared totally exhausted! God bless you all, and thank you for your time, commitment and love.

Sunday, August the 24th will be the Back to School Bash for the young people, with a special guest speaker Mark Winter. Remember this Sunday will also be Sunday school promotion day. Bring your children, neighbors' kids, your friends' kids, grandkids, nieces and nephews. Come spend some time in Christian fellowship with your loved ones.

CrossTraining, the highly successful childrens' program will start its second year Wednesday, August 27th at 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Remember, this program is a nondenominational Christian program, with stories, crafts, music, and games. The objective is for K-5th grades to learn about Jesus Christ in a loving, joyful environment. If you need more information, please call the church office.

September 8th is the first night for the Boy Scouts of America meeting for this school year. The meetings will be 6:30 p.m. on Monday for the Cub Scouts and Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. for the Boy Scouts in Fellowship Hall. If you have any questions, please call Frank Griffin, Scout Leader at 903-849-3923.

For us adults, the Quilt Group will meet September 13th, the Triple L is scheduled for September the 10th and those who have been in training, the 5K Fun Run is Saturday, August 23rd.

Join us at Linda Pinson's Bible study. The course will start September 8, 2008, and will last for 10 weeks. Sign up now if you are interested in learning Jesus's words "I AM."

St. Boniface Catholic

by Sue Beams

At the Saturday Vigil of the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Fr. O'Key posed the question, "Do you ever feel distanced from God? Have you ever felt that God is not answering your prayers?" We must come humbly before Him with unflinching faith. Never let anything or anyone stop you.

Deacon Steve likened the faith of the woman in the gospel reading to the faith required to live our Catholic faith in the open.

Sometimes being in the right place at the right time is life saving.

The Canaanite woman in today's gospel had the determination and faith in Christ, Jesus that is an example for living our faith. The mission of the Church is to evangelize. The salvation plan is not for just a few.

Our mission as members of the Catholic Church is to take the Word into the world. People oftentimes misunderstand our Catholic faith. We are called to keep talking, sharing our faith. Don't take your faith for granted.

Attending Mass should not be a 'habit.' There are so many ways to keep focused, to stay fired-up! RCIA is not just for converts; many 'cradle Catholics' could benefit from attending these classes. There are retreats offered throughout the diocese such as those at Well-spring. There are weekend seminars held in parishes on a regular basis. St. Boniface has RCIA classes each Sunday at 11 and adult Faith Formation classes are scheduled to begin in September. Take advantage of the offerings. In the 28th chapter of Matthew, Christ left the disciples with a mission; to teach, baptize and share the faith. This is our mission, too.

Thank you to all who served to make the Eucharistic celebration beautiful; the choir, readers, servers and ministers. May God bless you all. It is always a pleasure to see familiar faces at Mass and equally nice to see new ones. We welcome everyone and hope to see you again, soon. We remind you about the upcoming Faith Formation classes for children, youth and adults. Enrollment forms for the young people are available in the community room. Check the schedules for the adult classes.

There will be a youth meeting on August 20th at 6:30-8:00 pm, so make plans to attend. There are events planned in the diocese for the upcoming school year, so keep an eye on the weekly bulletin for more information. Congratulations and best wishes to those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries. We pray for those who are ill and those who have died. We continue to pray for the men and women in the armed services who bravely protect and defend our great nation. Have a good week.

growing rapidly. We invite you to see what this is all about. We are also providing a meal on Mondays and Wednesdays prior to the meeting and the Wednesday evening service. If you would like to help, please contact Mary Lou Jennings. The next Men's Breakfast will be held Saturday, August 23rd at 8am. It will also be held in the gym. All men are invited to attend. This is an important part of our ministry at Leagueville Baptist Church. Please remember to pray for our teachers and students who are returning to classes soon. School will begin soon and we need to pray for a safe and successful school year. We will be having a 5th Sunday lunch August 31st. We will have lunch following our morning services and then we will have an afternoon service. There will be no evening service. We invite you to stay after our morning service and enjoy lunch with our members. Leagueville ladies outdo themselves with their best cooking each 5th Sunday. We have several birthdays this week. We wish a happy birthday to Angie Parker, Selman Parker, Glen Vest and Robert Smith. We wish a happy anniversary to Danny and Angie Parker. We hope that your week is a blessed one.
