Letters To The Editor

The Statesman welcomes and encourages letters and e-mails from readers.

Letters must include the name, address and telephone numbers for verification purposes only. Just your name and city will be published.

All letters are subject to editing and must be limited to 400 words or less. No letter can be published without the above information.

Letters must not be false or misleading, the paper reserves the right to check on any information in the letters submitted. If misleading information is printed we will submit a retraction as the information is called to our attention.

It is not the goal of this paper to harm anyone by the letters to the editor, but it is our goal to give those in the community a place to voice their opinion.

Deadline:

The deadline for all news, display advertising and the "What's Happening" in The Statesman is 5 pm Monday.

Attention: The classified ad deadline is Mondays at noon for the same week's paper.

Family News Policy:

Family news such as wedding or engagement announcements must be submitted by 5:00pm Monday for publication on a space available basis in the same week's newspaper. Please include a telephone number to call if questions arise about spelling, etc.

Engagement announcements must be signed by both the prospective bride and groom, or other satisfactory arrangements made by which the newspaper may verify authenticity.

Birth announcements should be signed by both parents.

There is NO CHARGE for timely engagement or wedding announcements and a photo may be included at no cost.

Anniversary announcements with photos are also published free for couples celebrating 20 years or more of marriage, with subsequent free announcements limited to increments of five years.

Free anniversary announcements may not include an invitation to a reception or party where gifts are expected.

Oh happy day, because of space constraints, free birthday announcements are not published. However friends and relatives may purchase advertising space to congratulate a person on their birthday.

October is Texas Archeology Month

AUSTIN - Do you love getting out and exploring the amazing history that makes Texas so unique? If so, celebrate our state's heritage throughout October during Texas Archeology Month (TAM) at one of a variety of educational and fun events taking place in communities throughout Texas. The Texas Historical Commission (THC) publishes a listing of upcoming activities in the TAM Calendar of Events, now available on the THC's web site.

TAM is one of the biggest state celebrations of archeology in the country, informing Texans about how archeological sites can help tell the real stories of Texas by revealing important evidence about the state's past. From examining artifacts at a local museum to participating in a mock dig, TAM events bring history to life by highlighting the significance of the contributions made by professional and avocational archeologists.

Archeology fairs and festivals are the central events of TAM and will be held in various cities throughout the state including Brownsville, Del Rio, El Paso, Killeen, San Angelo and Texarkana, to name a few. Other TAM 2008 events include traditional craft demonstrations by specialists in pottery, basket making and flintknapping; special exhibits about archeological sites, projects and topics; and hands-on activities, including spear throwing and guided excursions to ancient rock art sites.

The THC is proud to sponsor TAM in association with the Texas Archeological Society and the Council of Texas Archeologists.

★ Pow Wow

day. There will be vendor booths, of course, with a great variety of all types of products.

New to Pow Wow this year will be two gentlemen with Indian ancestry dressed up as chiefs. They'll have Indian jewelry for sale and will give information about the Cherokee Indians.

Another addition is a concert at the tee-ball field which will kick off at about 6 pm. The show will feature a praise band from First Baptist Church in Chandler. In addition, the first, second and third place winners in the talent show will appear for an encore performance.

All the Pow Wow mainstays will return, including a kid's corral put on by a new area business called Pick a Party.

In addition, the Young Farmer's Pee Wee Rodeo is back. It will take place from 2-4 pm.

It's an opportunity to spend time as a family for an eventful day, with a free concert at the end.

The kickoff will start at about 11 am once the parade pulls into Winchester Park.

Smiley said there's still an opportunity for one or two last minute booth vendors to reserve a spot.

Cook of the Week

September 20, 1978
 Editor's note: This is a reminder to look forward to our upcoming Statesman Cook of the Week Cook Book. It's right around the corner!

Pam Clayton

Our cook this week is Pam Clayton, a life-long Brownsboro resident and active young homemaker. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Fulgham, Pam is married to Randal Clayton. Both are graduates of Brownsboro High School and Tyler Junior College. She received her B.A. degree from Stephen F. Austin University and masters from East Texas State University. He obtained his bachelors and masters degrees in business administration from ETSU.

Randal and Pam are parents of three children: Julie, who is six years old and a kindergarten student at Brownsboro Elementary, Gina, an outgoing three-year-old, and Chet, the 4-month-old young man of the house.

Besides keeping up with her three active children, Pam is also a business teacher at LaPoyner High School. Beginning her fifth year there, this is her 9th year to teach. She began her teaching career at Canton where she was on the staff with two present Brownsboro administrators, Lee Lanier and Bobby Teague.

This energetic lady plays the organ at the First United Methodist Church besides keeping her hands busy with hobbies such as needlepoint, crewel, embroidering, knitting, crocheting, and sewing. But her favorite hobby is cooking. With her leadership, her Typing II class has published two cookbooks in recent years. She has provided us with several of her favorite recipes.

Heavenly Fluff Salad

1 20-oz can crushed pineapple, drained (reserve juice)
 2 c. liquid (add water to pineapple juice to make 2 cups)
 3/4 c. sugar
 5 envelopes unflavored gelatin

1 c. cold water
 3 pkg. Dream Whip, prepared according to package directions
 1 to 1-1/2 c. shredded American cheese

Stir gelatin and sugar together. Add liquid and heat until gelatin and sugar dissolve. Stir in water and chill until syrupy (about 10-15 min.) Fold in prepared Dream Whip, crushed pineapple, and shredded cheese. Pour into 9" x 13" pan and chill until set. Cut into squares to serve.

Sour Cream Banana Cake

1/4 c. shortening
 1-1/3 c. sugar
 2 eggs
 1 tsp. vanilla
 2 c. flour
 1 tsp. baking powder

1 tsp. soda
 3/4 tsp. salt
 1 c. sour cream
 1 c. mashed bananas
 1/2 c. chopped pecans (optional)
 Cream cheese frosting

Cream shortening and eggs until light and fluffy. Add eggs and vanilla; blend thoroughly.

Combine flour, baking powder, soda and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with sour cream, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Add bananas and pecans, mixing just until blended.

Spoon batter into a greased and floured 9 x 13 pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 40-45 min. Cool and frost with Cream Cheese Frosting:

1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
 1/4 c. melted margarine
 1 tsp. vanilla
 1 1-lb. box powdered sugar

Combine all ingredients and blend well. Spread over cooled cake.
