Chandler Nursing Center

by Gretta Uzzell

A great Big thank you to Ms. Bobbie Tilley for bringing in the plants and also the flower vases.

Rev. Tommy Weems brought our residents Communion, assisted by Karin South of Compassionate Hospice Care. I even participated in the event myself.

A beautiful service; we are very grateful to Pastor Tommy Weems for being here for our residents.

A special thank you to Mr. Taylor; we found our canopy for the Pow Wow! Thank you to Missionary Ricky for hosting Bingo on the 4th, with our very own Veverly Henderson.

A Huge thank you to the members of Martin Springs Baptist Church for providing services on the 5th.

And a Big thank you to our very own Jean Dean for bringing in Bible study for our residents on the 5th also.

The Glad Timers were back on the 1st, bringing in a fantastic sing-along for our residents.

A special welcome and thank you to Angie Gallman, who is now planning to be an Activity professional, for being here as a volunteer. We appreciate her very much.

We still have 68 residents available for adoption.

If you are interested in adopting a resident for Christmas, please give Gretta a call at 903-849-2485 or we will see you at the Pow Wow!

We are still in need of those size 8 ladies pants.

Please make your donations to the Social Service Dept., or ask for Gretta.

We are also still in need of a special person or group who would be willing to minister to our residents on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month in the afternoon, around 2:00 p.m. or even start as late as 3:30 or 4:00 p.m. and hold a 30-minute service.

If you are that special person, please do not wait, just give Gretta a call so that we can set you up for the 26th.

We are looking for those home-made cookies, you know, this being National Cookie Month!

PROMISE TO REMEMBER

My aged head lifts and turns toward the hall;
Could it be that someone is paying a call?
Footsteps draw near - Hope stirs anew.
Who could it be? Friends left are so few.
A strand of loose hair is tucked quickly in place,
My dress smoothed out; steps slow in pace.
A woman comes in, the room fills with perfume.
"Oh, I'm so sorry - I have the wrong room."
"Miss Stone - do you know her?" "Yes, Dear, in room 4."

Slightly embarrassed she goes out the door.
My tired heart aches. Hands grip the chair.
The clock seems to tick, "no one to care."
Christmas and Easter people come through,
Distributing gifts - handmade and new.
Then, soon forgotten until the next year,
No one remembers that I reside here.
Patients pass on - a daughter or son
Say in the halls, "I meant to come."
Dear God, Dear God - Please let it be
That one will remember to come visit me!

SISTER

These words will not do justice for what I want to say to you;

You've been there for me all my life with the little things you do.

The love you showed when I was a child through many a scrape and blister.

I took it all for granted because you were my sister.

As years passed by, and both of us grew a little older,

With trials to endure, you were always there to offer me your shoulder.

Many miles are now between us, and our visits are just a few,

But the cards and calls keep coming; I expect that much from you.

Through all my life's adversities you've helped through every one.

I feel less like I'm your brother, and more like I'm your son.

Gray hairs are growing abundant, and now I'm called "Sir" or "Mister."

I wish everyone had someone like you that they could call their Sister.

by Lonnie Budro

CHILD-LIKE FAITH

Jesus loves me, this I know
For the Bible tells me so.
Little kids ask nothing more,
His love is what they're looking for.
Our faith in where the ages lie,
Is right there shining in their eyes.
A faith to stand, a faith to fall,
A faith that God will catch them all.
